

A VOICE LIKE PEPPERMINT...

Whether poignant, funny, angry or broken-hearted, San Diego-based singer songwriter, Ren Daversa, will command your attention with peppermint vocals, catchy, thoughtful lyrics and moody melodies.

As a seasoned musician, Ren's influences are varied ranging from indie artists like Cold War Kids, Tori Amos and Jeff Buckley to classical, rock and country. With a voice that soars effortlessly from angelic clarity to edgy emotion, Ren is emerging as a unique solo artist with a fresh brand of original, acoustic pop that will keep you entranced song after song!

VERIFIED REVIEW – Amazon.com

"...Ren is a great musician, singer, and songwriter. There is an honesty and authenticity in her music that is missing in most music these days. This is one of the best indie artist albums that I have heard and I really hope to hear more from her. She is an incredible talent and this album will definitely be a part of my road trip mix from now on."

DEBUT SOLO ALBUM – SALTWATER

Hailing from a small island off the coast of Rhode Island, Ren has always been inspired by the sea, so it's no surprise that her first solo record would be titled "Saltwater". Released on October 1, 2018, this album represents her debut as both solo artist and producer. Recorded at the Grey Brick Studio in San Diego, CA, Saltwater is a musical and lyrical interpretation of love, struggle, enlightenment and strength. Nine finely-crafted acoustic pop tracks that showcase this eclectic artist's songwriting, arrangement, vocal and harmony skills.
